

DistriQ

QUANTUM INNOVATION ZONE

The Catalyst for Quebec's quantum ecosystem

MISSION

Distriq , the Quantum Innovation Zone, accelerates the development of a world -class quantum ecosystem , attracting top talent and companies, while helping to create an attractive and sustainable living environment.

HOW?

01

Facilitating access to provincial and federal support programs

02

Attracting a skilled, creative and diverse workforce

03

Reducing research costs with its world - class innovation center

04

Improving the speed of technology solution development

05

Fostering growth and international investment

Sherbrooke

- "Top 20 best Canadian cities with populations of 200,000 or less¹»
- A city of knowledge, innovation and collaboration, with strategic assets in R&D, education, entrepreneurship and quality of life.
- 1st in Canada for student per capita ratio: 44,000 local and international students. 4th best student city in Canada and 1st for the quality of life offered to students²".
- One of the lowest operating and set-up costs for businesses in Canada²
- Quality of life: hundreds of community organizations, > 150 parks and green spaces, > 130 km of bicycle paths, several museums and art galleries, a major concert hall and a quality housing plan

¹Canada's Best Small Cities in 2022

²HelloSafe, 2023

³Source : KPMG

Founding members

4645 m² (50,000 sq ft) of collaborative spaces

Espace Quantique 1

- Office spaces and laboratory with state -of-the -art equipment
- Hosting 20 startups and organizations
- Over 100 employees

DevTeQ:

a shared commercial quantum lab

Research Equipment for Computing, Sensors, Communications, and Photonics:

- 6 dilution refrigerators
- Electronic control systems
- Mechanical workshop (CNC, 3D printer)
- Photonic optics laboratory
- Cleanroom (wet benches)
- Assembly and prototyping area
- Quantum communications testbed

For more information: distriq.com